Dear Kathy,

As Joan Rozzo may have told you, I'm leaving DDF&M at the end of November. I'll be getting married and moving to the Middle East. Anything to keep life interesting.

I just wanted to get down on paper the fact that I think you're one of the finest professionals I've ever had the pleasure and good fortune to work with. You unfailingly give your all --- even at 4 A.M., even when lights are crashing down on your head, even when the rest of us are snapping and snarling. And I know that it can't all be attributed to your cheerful nature. You are a fine craftsperson who works like a slave to make it look easy. Shop 'n Save (and DDF&M) is damn lucky to have you. I'm just sorry that I won't be able to spirit you out to Dubai to improve the standards of advertising there.

The best of luck to you, Kathy. You certainly have the strongest professional recommendation I can give...and my warmest regards as a friend.

Yours,

Mary M. Mazziotti
